Profile

Cristi Lutjen is a paralegal who has been with Dunn Carney LLP for more than 25 years. She specializes in commercial and construction litigation, as well as real estate and corporate law. Cristi routinely works on construction liens, collection issues and garnishments, skip tracing and asset location, and real property title searches in both Oregon and Washington.

In addition to paralegal work, Cristi supports Dunn Carney's Real Estate Team, including the practice group leader and the firm's managing partner.

She also serves as the Team Lead for the Real Estate Team and the Business Team, coordinating work flow and communication for staff.

Outside of work, Cristi is an avid runner who enjoys cooking, gardening, knitting and quilting.
