Focus

Profile

Randall Malmstrom joined Dunn Carney as a corporate paralegal in 2011 and has been in the professional paralegal field since 1994. His duties include all aspects of business entity formation and maintenance; governmental filings; tax registrations; legal research; business licensing; business transactions; Uniform Commercial Code financing documentation and filings; real estate transactions; securities registrations; trademark registrations and maintenance; and copyright registrations. Randall's years of diverse experience are an asset to the firm's clients.

Outside his work in the legal field, Randall has been a music teacher of most every skill and education levels, and is currently a music arranger – his arrangements find ears across the globe. He spent decades as a professional musician, having played with the Oregon Symphony, Seattle Opera Orchestra and Portland Opera Orchestra among many other groups.
