Profile

Chelsea Glynn is a member of Dunn Carney's Litigation Team. She has defended municipal bodies, individuals, commercial carriers and manufacturers in negligence, products liability, personal injury, construction and premises liability claims.

Before joining Dunn Carney, Chelsea served as an assistant county counsel for Washington County and in private practice. She has experience in state and federal court and the Oregon Court of Appeals.

Chelsea counts among her strengths her research and writing skills, as well as her experience in discovery.

Away from the office, Chelsea enjoys playing tennis and running. In addition to spending time with her pet African Grey parrot and her dog, she regularly fosters dogs and volunteers with a local animal shelter.
