Profile

Julia White is a member of Dunn Carney's Estate Planning & Administration Team. She has extensive experience evaluating complex tax issues across both state and federal law. Julia also represents corporate and multinational landlords in forcible entry and detainer actions, as well as other landlord-tenant disputes.

Before joining Dunn Carney, Julia completed a two-year clerkship at the Oregon Tax Court, where she drafted orders, decision, and research memoranda primarily focused on issues involving property tax, income tax, and corporate excise tax. During law school, Julia worked at a Big Four accounting firm and externed at the Lewis and Clark Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic.

Julia is admitted to practice in Oregon and California.
